

The Daily Gazetteer:

NUMB. 161.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1740.

97:1612.

Yesterday arrived Two Mails from France, and Two from Flanders.

Paris, Aug. 27. N. S.

Y an extraordinary Courier from the Duke de St. Aignan, his Majesty's Ambassador at Rome, we have Advice, that the Cardinal Lambertini, Archbishop of Bologna, aged 65, was chose Pope; and that he had taken the Name of Benedict XIV. Since the Year 1314, when the Holy Apostolical See was without a Pope for more than Two Years, it has not been so long vacant as now, except during the Council of Constance that met to put an End to the Grand Schism which then distracted the Church.

Venna, Aug. 13. N. S. Some Letters from Upper Austria insist upon the News, That it has rain'd Corn there: And a Sort of Grain is actually shewn here, which is pretended to have come from the Clouds there, resembling the Kernels of an Apple, Black without and White within, and somewhat like Turkey Wheat: But this News is too extraordinary to be entirely credited.

Dresden, Aug. 10. N. S. On the 5th Instant dy'd General Milkow, in the 70th Year of his Age; of which he had spent 50 in the Service of their Majesty, by whom his Death is particularly lamented, as it is in general by all that knew him.

Hanover, Aug. 12. The King and Ministry seem to be very well pleas'd with the Conduct of Mr. Finch at the Court of Peterburgh, who we are assur'd has obtain'd a speedy and considerable Assistance by Sea from the Czarina, in case any Power should declare for Spain. Yesterday the Count d'Offein, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Emperor, had an Audience of above half an Hour of his Majesty at Herenhausen, and 'tis said he is charg'd with a very important Commission. There is great Talk of an Alliance on the point of being concluded between this Court, Poland and Prussia, and 'tis reckon'd that nothing is wanting but his Majesty's Interview with the King of Prussia, to put the Seal to the said Alliance.

Petersburg, Aug. 2. The Accommodation betwixt this Court and that of Sweden is as good as concluded, and no doubt it will be sign'd as soon as the Swedish Troops are retir'd from our Frontiers. We are assur'd that it will be very much upon the Plan of the old Treaty of Neustadt. 'Tis also said, that an Alliance is on foot between our Court and certain Powers, for maintaining the Peace of the North. The Duchess of Brunwic advances happily in her Pregnancy, and if she be deliver'd of a Prince, the Czarina will declare him Heir of all the Russian Monarchy.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcastle, Aug. 16. Last Monday ended the Assizes for this Town and County of Northumberland; when, for the latter, George Paterson received Sentence of Death for Horse-stealing: For the former, Peter Hartley receiv'd Sentence of Death, for breaking and stealing Goods out of the Shop of Margaret Wilson, but was reliev'd by the Judge: William Keed alias Kid, for feloniously taking Money belonging to the Mayor and Burgesses, Thomas Grey, James Harriot, Robert Hatherwick, William Sopit, Jacob Trotter, and Thomas Wilson, all for being concern'd in the late Riot, were order'd to be transported for seven Years. The rest of the Rioters were acquitted of the Felonies; but several Indictments on Account of the Riot being found against them, they are to remain in Goal till they find Surerries for their Appearance next Assizes to answer the said Indictments, themselves in 40 l. and their Sureties in 10 l. each.

At which Assizes also a Bill of Indictment was found by the Grand Jury against John Brown, Gentleman, and Eleanor Lyon, Spinster, for a Conspiracy, in carrying away Jane the Wife of Francis Gomeldon, Gentleman, without his Knowledge or Consent.

On Wednesday last this Port was open'd for Oats and Rye; and several Ships are already come to the Harbour, and others are coming, with Rye.

L O N D O N.

Last Night also arrived the Mail due from Holland.

Letters of the 13th, N. S. from Venice say, they have had Advice from Constantinople, that a dangerous Conspiracy against the Grand Signor having been discover'd by a Woman, many of the Plotters were thereupon secretly put to Death; and that such a Number of dead Bodies was seen floating about the Seraglio, as was shocking to behold.

Those of the 30th of July N. S. from Petersburg say, that General K-ith is set out to take the chief Command of the Forces in the Ukraine; and that the Son of M. Wolinski, who was lately executed, is banish'd, and his Daughters clapp'd up in a Convent.

By a List printed at Rome of all the Popes that have been chose since the Council of Constance, which takes Notice also of the Time that they reign'd, and of the Duration of each Conclave, it appears that there have been forty-one Popes including Martin III. who was created in the Council of Constance the 11th of November 1417, and Clement XII. who dy'd the 6th of February last, N. S. that the longest Conclave which was in all that Time, was that held after the Death of Alexander VIII. in February 1691, which lasted five Months and twelve Days; and that the present Conclave last six entire Months.

Letters of the 18th N. S. from Augsburg say, that Prince Joseph of Hesse-Darmstadt was that Day chose Bishop of that City, to the great Satisfaction of all the Inhabitants.

Last Tuesday Se'night in the Forenoon a Fire broke out in the Dwellinghouse of Mr. Robert Beens of Somerton in Hampshire, which in a short time consum'd the said House and Goods therein, to the Value of near 300 l. And 'twas with great Difficulty that his Wife and Daughter, who were then in Bed, were rescued from the Flames.

Yesterday Morning died in an advanced Age, at his House near Epsom in Surrey, John Palmer, Esq; formerly Receiver-general of the said County.

The Right Hon. the Lord Byron is arriv'd here from on board his Majesty's Ship the Victory. We hear that his Lordship is to have the Command of one of the new 20 Gun Ships.

On Tuesday Night last died at her House in Queen-Square, Mrs. Elizabeth Cloake, Relict of Cloake, Esq; a Gentlewoman of great Piety and Charity, and her Death is greatly lamented, particularly by the Poor, to whom she was a great Benefactress.

On Tuesday next the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, will meet at Westminster-Hall pursuant to their last Adjournment.

On Saturday next the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor will go with the usual Formality to Smithfield, in order to proclaim Bartholomew-Fair.

Admiralty Office, August 1, 1740.
HIS Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows whose Husbands did die or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodg'd with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, their Share of the Bounty granted by Parliament; these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 16th of September next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

THE LONDON PUNCH-HOUSE
ASHLEY, LEE, and COMPANY,
BRANDY-MERCHANTS,
And the IMPORTERS,

Are to be Sold, (At their Warehouses and Cellars adjoining to and under the London Punch-House on Ludgate-Hill.)

A Very large and curious Parcel of the Best Old JAMAICA RUM, at 6 s. 9 per Gallon.

CONIAC BRANDY, 7 6

BATAVIA ARRACK, 13 6

THE PROPRIETORS do warrant it all entirely new, and as curious as ever warstafed; they having for many Years made it their sole Business to import and procure the Importation of the best and oldest JAMAICA RUM and CONIAC BRANDY, having settled a proper Correspondence abroad or that Purpose, and have always large Stocks by them.

Therefore as no Persons whatsoever can command their Goods from abroad on better Terms, so they are determined at all times to sell at the lowest Price that can possibly be afforded (dealing altogether for ready Money) nor will they vend any but what they will WARRANT neat and genuine.

These are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Use, which have been sold with so much success for the Good of Mankind above Thirty Years last past, in the Cure of are removed from the Minorities, where they have been sold by the Author, so long, and are now sold only at Mr. Sandwell's Taphop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklersbury in the Poultry, at 5s. the Parcel, with printed Directions given with them.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, having by their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained the Reputation they so justly deserve, both in City and Country, after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a small Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient; one Parcel is generally sufficient for a complete Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cured Persons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but that People are naturally averse to let it be known, that they ever had such an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can satisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he has not had such large Knowledge, by reason of the short Time he has sold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now, for good Reasons, removed.
